Celebrating Men, Satisfying Women®

Private

A Two-Day Workshop for Women

Imagine...

- ♥ Getting what you most need and desire from men
- ♥ Appreciating men and yourself more
- ♥ Really understanding men and knowing how to communicate with them
- ♥ Your relationships with men are transformed forever

Celebrating Men, Satisfying Women is your source for understanding men and all the extraordinary results that makes possible. An intimate workshop designed specifically for women to allow over 20 fascinating topics to be absorbed beyond the conceptual level and integrated into your life.

Since 1995, thousands of women ages 17 to 83 have participated in the Celebrating Men, Satisfying Women workshop and have reported these results:

- ♥ More love, happiness, peace and fun in their relationships with men
- ♥ Feeling appreciated and adored by men
- ♥ More romance, presents, flowers, cards and other expressions of love
- ♥ Feeling more comfortable, confident, spontaneous and self-expressed with men in a variety of situations
- ♥ More respect and compassion for men in general
- ♥ A greater experience of the unique power of women
- ♥ Less conflict, frustration and disappointment
- ♥ No longer having to be the man in their own lives

The Celebrating Men, Satisfying Women workshop will help you understand why men do what they do. You will find out what not to take personally—and even make sense of their most annoying behaviors and learn how to deal with them.

If you've been hurt by men in the past, injuries will heal as you look back on upsetting situations and begin to see what really happened. You will learn great alternatives for dealing with similar issues in the future. As you learn how to get what you need from men, any residual anger and frustration you may have toward men will dissipate.

What is the difference between a "Private" and a regular workshop?

While the Private CMSW will have the same content and a panel of men, there are significant differences:

- ♥ Casual environment, in a home or private facility
- ♥ Fewer participants, much more intimate
- ♥ Leader-in-Training which you are helping develop
- ♥ Lower tuition – Save $270 off the regular $445 price
